About the Opera House Players

For over 55 years the OHP has been bringing entertainment to the stage in Elkader! In the fall, with the support of many people from all over northeast Iowa and southwest Wisconsin, the Opera House Players have presented such blockbusters as Singin' In The Rain, Fiddler On The Roof, Disney's Mary Poppins, Oliver!, Matilda, Annie, The Wizard of Oz, Shrek the Musical, and The Producers.

In the spring, the productions usually involve a somewhat smaller cast and crew, but are never short on entertainment! The Opera House Players also provides a summer theater camp each year at a low cost to give our local children a taste of theater and schedules a special holiday musical or play every other season, alternating that with A Classic Christmas Fantasy, a showcase of area talent.

The improvements to this marvelous structure continue by financial donations from the OHP, other businesses and supporters, but also by the numerous OHP volunteers that spend countless hours making it happen.

The Opera House Players installed a hearing loop for the Main Floor Seating, helped create new dressing rooms, built a removable pit cover, added new stage curtains, updated to a new lighting system with several new fixtures and capabilities added yearly, and are upgrading the backstage area as well as technical aspects of theater, sound, and rigging to make the building even more valuable to the community.

All of this would not be possible without the support of the City of Elkader who maintains this wonderful facility and who worked hand in hand with the volunteers to make it happen. Our grateful thanks also goes to you, our patrons, members, and audience members for supporting theater in this area.

Volunteers are the cornerstone of any community theater group and the Opera House Players are lucky to have some of the best. Whether you have a theater background or not, this is a place for you to get involved. People from all walks of life participate, forming new friendships, learning new skills, and gaining self-confidence. What kinds of opportunities are available? Acting, directing, set construction, orchestra, publicity, props, costumes, make-up, ushering... and much more!

Be sure to look for announcements on our future productions as well as other events occurring in the Opera House. If you would like more information about our group or theater, visit our website at www.operahouseplayers.com.

MEET THE CAST

Jonathon Moser (Bobby Child) – This show marks Jonathon’s 36th OHP production. Over the years, he has taken on quite the range of roles, with recent highlights including Robert in The Play That Goes Wrong (2024), Miss Trunchbull in Matilda (2021), Leo Bloom in The Producers (2019), and Shrek in Shrek the Musical (2015). In addition to performing, Jonathon served as set director for this show—a job that demands countless hours of planning, building, and problem-solving. He especially enjoys teaming up with his wife, Cheri, on productions like Crazy for You and is grateful to share the hard work (and plenty of fun) with his favorite person. Jonathon is a chiropractor at Strutt Clinic in McGregor and co-owns Grumpsters Cabins. He and Cheri live in McGregor with their four children—Mariah (Tess), Taryn (Betsy), Trace (Mingo), and Gretel (our favorite audience member).

Kristy Fleming (Polly Baker) – Kristy is glad to be back on stage for her 9th OHP production. Her favorite role being Mary Poppins in Disney’s Mary Poppins (2018). Kristy works at Collins Aerospace in Manchester. She enjoys reading, golfing, and spending time with her family (and chickens). Kristy lives in Dyersville with her husband, Travis, and their two sons, Avery and Cameron.

Cameron Berges (Bela Zangler) – This is Cameron’s 9th OHP production. Past performances include Max/Cecil in The Play That Goes Wrong (2024), Captain Hook in Peter Pan (2023), The Old Man (Ralphie’s father) in A Christmas Story (2022), and Bert in Mary Poppins (2018) - a portrayal that landed him a ‘Best Actor in a Musical’ award from the Iowa Community Theatre Association. He lives in Waukon with his wife Sara, daughters Emma & Jocelyn, and son Gavin. Cameron is an IT Administrator at Northeast Iowa Community College in Calmar.

Rhys Evans (Lank Hawkins) – This is Rhys’s 4th show with OHP after Secret Garden (2000), Starkey the pirate in Peter Pan (2023) and Trevor the stage manager in The Play That Goes Wrong (2024). Kyle Sneed (Harry) – Kyle is back for his second performance on the Elkader Opera House stage, having broken a long hiatus from acting by embodying the role of Chris (Inspector Carter) in the 2024 production of The Play That Goes Wrong! This will be Kyle’s first musical, and he is excited to add “dancer” to his resume. When not an actor, Kyle falls back on other descriptions such as avid reader, collector of video games, and deliverer of mail. He hopes his wife, Linda, and daughter, Khloe, will forgive the constant practicing of song and dance at home in Strawberry Point.

Micah Gearhardt (Custus/Junior) – This is Micah’s first Opera House performance, and he is grateful for the opportunity to work alongside such a talented cast. Micah serves as a school administrator during the day, and in the evenings and on weekends, when he’s not rehearsing, he enjoys camping with friends and family, attending fine arts and sporting events to cheer on his children, hiking, and practicing his carpentry skills. Since then she has acted in, directed, or done choreography for over 60 shows and productions for the Opera House Players. She also does historical character reenactments for the Carter House Museum. Some of her favorite roles include the wicked Widow Corney in Oliver (2012), the fun loving Gladys in Copacabana (2013), the ever busy Mrs. Brill in Mary Poppins (2018) and had a blast with the other pirates in Peter Pan (2023). She lives in Monona with her husband, Tim and loves spending time with their ten wonderful grandchildren.

Kay Moser, Stage Manager – Kay has been involved with the OHP since 1973. She has appeared on stage a few times, but her favorite place is where she is most often found producing, stage managing and helping the cast and crews in any way she can! She enjoys traveling, reading and taking lots of walks!! She lives in Elkader with her husband (light guy) Jay. Her life is made complete when she can spend time with her son Benjamin, wife, Jenna and their sons, Kallum and Ronan along with son Jonathon, wife, Cheri and their children Mariah, Taryn, Trace, and Gretel. Onstage, one of her most memorable roles was playing Fiona in Shrek the Musical (2015), where she got to play opposite her husband, Jonathon. Offstage, Cheri wears many hats: she handles marketing for the MFL MarMac School District, serves as Administrative Assistant at Trinity Cluster, is the pianist at St. Mary’s in McGregor and runs Grumpsters Cabins—a short-term rental business—with her husband. She is also an Iowa Community Theatre Association board member and the head speech coach at MFL MarMac. Cheri and Jonathon live in McGregor with their four children.

DIRECTOR’S NOTES

When I first chose Crazy for You, I was drawn to it for its incredible dance numbers. I’ve always loved big choreography, and this show delivers that in abundance. What has made it even more special is watching this cast rise to the challenge—not just learning the steps, but bringing such energy and heart to the stage.

What I’ve grown to love about this show is how timeless it feels. George and Ira Gershwin’s music has a vibrancy that still grabs you, and the story reminds us of the power of laughter, love, and a great spontaneous dance number. There’s something refreshing about a show that lets you laugh, tap your foot, and forget about the serious stuff for a while.

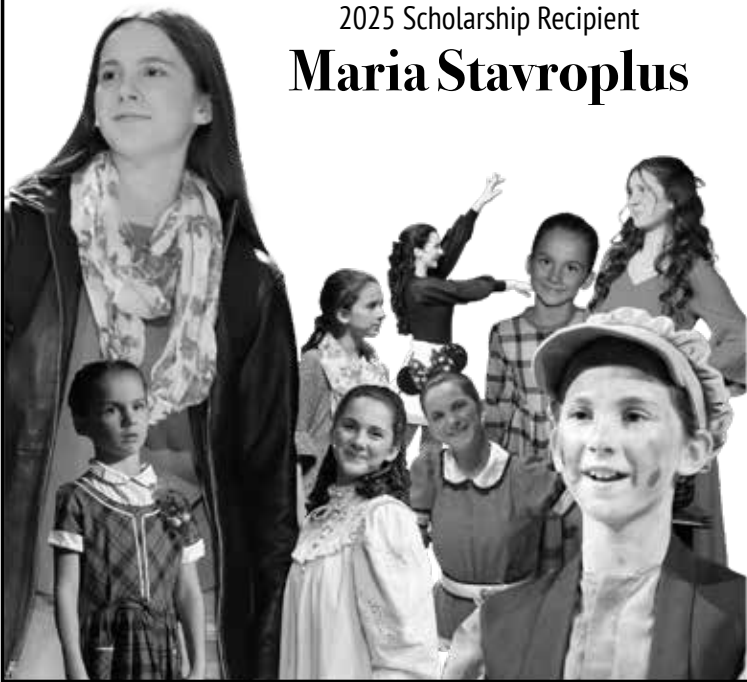

I hope you leave the theatre with a tune in your head and an appreciation for the talent and hard work this cast has put into bringing the show to life.

Enjoy!
