

Schedule - To accompany form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 31

In addition to the productions listed on form 990-EZ Part III lines 28-30:

In July, the group hosted the Missoula Children's Theater. Approximately fifty five area residents took part in the production of "Hans Christian Anderson" which was attended by approximately 320 people. The Opera House Players sponsored this event at a loss, so that area children could have a summer theatrical experience.

In August, the group sponsored a Melodrama for local camping groups. The production of "She was only a farmer's daughter" involved 7 cast members and was attended by approximately 310 people. Admission charges beyond covered costs went toward the fund to purchase a concert grand piano for the Elkader Opera House. Community theater and the arts were promoted.